

Bustebartepinn

This is a children's song by Alf Prøysen first appeared in the children's book "Den grønne votten" (The Green Mitten) from 1964. The book tells the story of a lost green mitten. Among other things, it becomes the heart of the snowman named Bustebartepinn.

The dance was created by Ingrid M. Tuko as part of a project to create dances to many dearly loved Alf Prøysen songs.

Music: 3/4 masurka. The dancers sing, see sheet music below.

Formation: A circle of couples.

Meas Pattern

Dance #1, created by Ingrid M Tuko in 1995

1-6 Starting with L ft, run 18 small steps to the L.

7-8 Take two hands with partner, and dance once around with two steps from springer: run on L (ct 1), run on R (ct 2), hop on R (ct 3).

Dance #2, created by Ingrid M Tuko in 2008

1-6 Dance 4 polkamasurka steps to L, then 2 polkamasurka steps to R.
Polkamasurkasteg L: step to L on L (ct 1), step on R beside L (ct 2), lift on R or on both (ct 3).

7-8 W dances around M (facing him) with 5 running steps, stepping on R beside L on 6th ct. M takes the steps in place. This changes partners.
